DEMOCRATIC PAPER REBUKES DICKERSONS

The mud slinging tactics of the democratic candidates have become nauseating even to the decent press of that party. The Wells Herald, a staunch democratic sheet, comes out with the following editorial that is worthy of reproduction:

"The friends of T. L. Oddie, men who have known him for years, will resent with their votes the statement of a White Pine paper to the effect that agents of the Southern Pacific are going throughout Nevada instructing the employees of that corporation to vote for Oddie for governor. There have been many political campaigns in Nevada, but within the memory of man nothing to compare with such methods as are being used by the White Pine paper have been experienced. No one who knows T. L. Oddie will for a moment believe such statements. When such levels as this are sought it is time to call a halt. The Herald is not fighting the battles of Mr. Oddie, but it does believe in decency. It seems that the governor's Ely paper could surely do politics in a manner better than it is following. Some writers may think such methods will win, but Nevada is peopled by voters who will not stand for such coarse work. That kind of politics will make many dozens of votes for Oddie."

The straightforward manner in which Senator Nixon, T. L. Oddie, E. E. Roberts and others discussed the vital issues of the campaign at the meeting in this city Monday evening, without indulging in personal abuse of their opponents or mud slinging of any nature, is in striking contrast with the methods of Key Pittman and the democratic bunch. The noticeable difference in methods is making strength for the republican ticket every day. The time has gone by when abuse and demagogism can be made to take the place of reason in a political campaign.—Las Vegas Age.

Only a few weeks ago the democratic press was bitter in its denunciation of Senator Newlands, whom it classed as a S. P. hireling. Since the senator presided at a meeting in Reno, introduced the democratic candidates, and incidentally subscribed to the campaign fund, he has been welcomed back into the fold.

"Made in San Francisco" should be printed on Governor Dickerson's latest placards. It is a good job all right, and bears the union label of San Francisco, but it is not setting a good example to other candidates.

Theodore Roosevelt told the members of the New York Press club the other night how it is that he can breakfast, dine and sup on work and then top off on more work. He said he liked it. He liked private life and he liked public life. He enjoyed every job he had ever had and he begged his hearers to be under no anxiety as to what should be done "for this ex-president," because he would "do for himself."

The Bonanza's ruling and binding plant is still running. Bring in your orders.

"What'er is best administered is best" for the one who administers.
